

2008 STORYTELLING FESTIVAL

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 2008

Hosted by kumu hula and MACC Cultural Programs Director Hōkūlani Holt, the 2008 STORYTELLING FESTIVAL will feature hands-on morning workshops conducted by master storytellers, culminating with a FREE storytelling performance in the afternoon! Whether you want to learn more about storytelling techniques or just like to listen to magnificent Hawaiian legends, folklore and contemporary tales from master storytellers and students alike, there's something for everyone at the 2008 Storytelling Festival!

WORKSHOPS: HAWAIIAN STORYTELLING FOR ADULTS

McCoy Studio Theater, 9 am – 2 pm (Tickets: $20)

Three Master Storytellers—Tom Cummings, Lopaka Kapanui, and Kalama Cabigon—will cover storytelling tips, tools and techniques, classic mo'olelo (Hawaiian story), ghost stories, and more! Explore the essence of traditional and contemporary Hawaiian storytelling as presented in dramatic interpretation, with the use of objects, and through the voice in mele or poetic form.

8:30 am – Registration

9 am – Workshops begin

11:45 am – 12:30 pm – Lunch break

12:45 pm – Workshops continue until pau

To purchase workshop tickets, visit the MACC Box Office or call 242-SHOW (7469) to charge by phone Mon through Sat, 10 am - 6 pm, or purchase tickets online at www.mauiararts.org.

PERFORMANCE: 3 PM, A&B AMPHITHEATER (FREE ADMISSION!)

Features Master Storytellers Tom Cummings, Lopaka Kapanui, and Kalama Cabigon, along with a storytelling presentation by over 100 students from Waihe'e Elementary School, who have been in an educational and cultural storytelling residency with Makamae Murray.

KALAMA CABIGON: "The Knee Cap: Fish Hook legend"
(In Hawaiian and English)

TOM CUMMINGS: "Puniu and Kaialeale"
About a man who kills man eating sharks.

LOPAKA KAPANUI: "Ghosts We Know"

STUDENT STORIES include:
"Kuamo'o Mookini and the Great Whale"
"Ku Kauakahi and Na Pueo."

Lopaka Kapanui
O'ahu's "ghost tour"
leader

Tom Cummings
Bishop Museum

Kalama Cabigon
Chanter, Musician,
Actor, Slam Poet

BOX OFFICE: 242-SHOW (7469) WWW.MAUIARTS.ORG

A grant was received from the Rev. Takie Okumura Family Fund of the Hawai'i Community Foundation. Also supported in part by National Endowment for the Arts, State Foundation for Culture and the Arts, County of Maui and KPOA Radio.

Maui Arts & Cultural Center, One Cameron Way, Kahului, Hawai'i 96732