

SCHAEFER INTERNATIONAL GALLERY

HI'IAKAIKAPOLIOPELE: VISUAL STORIES BY CONTEMPORARY NATIVE HAWAIIAN ARTISTS

SEPTEMBER 15 - OCTOBER 24

• Opening Reception September 12, 5 PM

This invitational exhibition will include accomplished upcoming artists of Hawaiian ancestry who have been asked to create new work with inspiration from the epic tale Ka Mo'olelo O Hi'ikaikapoliopole, by Ho'oulumāhie. The artist's work will include sources of inspiration from traditional hula, chants, characters and places of the goddess Pele and her younger sister, Hi'ikaikapoliopole. This exhibition will be traveling to the Hawai'i State Art Museum, in Honolulu.

Marques Marzan,
Pā'ū o Hi'iaka,
na 'au pua 'a

ROOTS OF INSPIRATION: CONTEMPORARY FUNCTIONAL FURNITURE

NOVEMBER 10 - DECEMBER 23

• Opening Reception November 8, 5 PM

A select group of Hawai'i's finest professional furniture makers have been invited to each create one unique piece of functional furniture based on an inspirational source of artifacts, antiques or architecture from pre or post contact Hawai'i. Expect to see exceptional craftsmanship and technical excellence in carving, turning and inlay with materials such as koa, milo, kamani and Norfolk pine.

Stephen Hynson,
Biedermeier Goes Fishing,
koa, wenge & camphor wood

THE ESSENCE OF MAUI

JANUARY 12 - FEBRUARY 20

• Opening Reception January 9, 5 PM

If you had to name one thing that defines the essence of Maui what would it be? We invited a group of artists from the Maui community to determine what the physical, spiritual, cultural or social essence of Maui is to them and to create one unique piece to show their touchstone. This promises to be an intriguing exhibit with visual depth, personal meaning and shared interest.

Bill and Sally Worcester,
Ipu Wai,
glass

ART MAUI

MARCH 7 - APRIL 2

We welcome the Art Maui organization back to the gallery for this popular annual juried exhibit in its 32nd year of showcasing the work of artists from the Valley Isle. Discover the endless range of ideas and techniques seen in drawing, painting, sculpture, printmaking and digital media, with something for everyone.

CELEBRATING THE ARTIST IN US

APRIL 11 - 25 • Opening Reception April 10, 4 PM

For our annual student exhibit we've invited Maui students from grades K- 8 to be the architects of imaginary neighborhoods. Using basic materials and the spirit of collaboration, works from individual students will be assembled in the gallery to make a colossal rambling neighborhood. Expect to see both two and three dimensional environments with fantasy houses, gardens, people and pets, with a variety of ideas that show us "what's up in the hood."

First grade student,
Untitled,
watercolor

GAYLEN HANSEN: THREE DECADES OF PAINTINGS

MAY 11 - JUNE 19

• Opening Reception May 8, 5 PM

Organized by the Museum of Art at Washington State University, this exhibit brings together a retrospective of 30 years of this remarkable artist's development. It traces the evolution of Hansen's narrative paintings which encompass the landscape of the rural West. Colorful large scale compositions of horses, dogs, fish, grasshoppers and Hansen's alter ego "the Kernal" lead viewers into his playful world of humor and humanity.

Gaylen Hansen,
Kernal in the Thistle Patch,
oil on canvas